HEALTH FOR A SHILLING

Holloway's Pills.

Headaches, Bile, Loss of Appetite, and Lowness of Spirits.

These Pills require no interruption of business o pleasure; they act mildly on the bowels, strengthe the stomach, and promote a healthy action of th liver, whereby they purify the blood, cleanse th skin, brace the nerves, and invigorate the while sys tem. They effect a truly wonderful change in debili tated constitutions, as they create a healthy appetite correct indigestion, remove bile, giddiness head aches, and palpitation of the heart.

Weakness and Debility.

of debility, languor, and nervousness gen excess of any kind, whether mental or phy effect of these Pills is in the highest degre bracing, renovating and restorative. They driv from the system the morbid cause of disease; re-e tablish the digestion, regulate all the secretions, brac the nervous system, raise the patient's spirits, and bring back the frame to its pristine health and vigor They increase the appetite, while they secure perfec digestion to all ordinary food, and release the invalid from restraint in diet.

A Word to Females.

There are two periods, especially in Woman's life, which require for safe passage, judgment and attention. Irregularity is apt at those critical times to take place, and to lay the foundation of future dis ease. These Pills, safe in action, and effective in re sult, should be taken at certain periods, and the issue will be marvellous both to the young and the middle aged. They prevent nervousness, hysterics, dropsy, and a host of similar serious disorders, by expelling all impurities from the system, therefore none should ver be without them.

Coughs, Colds, and Asthmas,

No medicine will cure colds so quickly as these Pills, when of long duration or settled on the chest or even though it has assumed the first stage of asthma, they may be relied on as a certain and never failing cure, particularly if the Ointment be well rub bed into the chest and throat night and morning. this catch the eye of any asthmatical person so bad as even not able to lie down in bed, let him well use these two preparations for only a week, and the re sult will be marvellous.

Blood t the Head--Diseases of the Heart,

More persons die suddenly from diseases of the heart than the unlearned suppose: in such com plaints, the bowels should always be kept well open, as also where there is a tendency of blood to the head. These celebrated Pills purify the blood in an extraordinary manner, and should be taken in copi ous doses when such symptoms occur, taking care not to overload the stomach; by this means al dan ger is quickly averted.

Children's Complaints.

It is not generally known, but such is the fact, tha children require medicine oftener than their parents Three-fourths of the children die before they attain the age of eight years. Let mothers, then, be wise and give to their children small doses of these inva luable Pills once or twice every week, in such quan tity as may act gently upon the system twice in the twenty-four hours. For infants, a Pill may be crushed and given as a powder in a little water The gross humors that are constantly floating about in the blood of children, the forerunners of so many com plaints, will thus be expelled, and the lives of thou sands saved and preserved to their parents.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throat
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone and Gravel
Billous Complaints	Erysipelas	Liver Complaints	Secondary Symptoms
Blotches on the Skin	Female Irregularities	Lumbago	Tic-Doloureux
Bowel Complaints	Fevers of all kinds	Piles	Tumours
Colics	Fits	Rheumatism	Ulcers
Constipation of Bowels	Gout	Retention of Urine	Venereal Affections
Consumption	Head-ache	Scrofula, or King's Evil	Weakness, from whatever cause
Debility	Indigestion
	Worms of all kinds

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

OUR PARLIAMENTARY LIBRARY --WHAT WE SHOULD HAVE IN IT.

Now that a commencement has been made in the formation of a parliamentary library for this colony, it would be well if some steps were taken to secure for it copies of all the old works relating to the Island and neighboring coast. Spanish, Russian, English and American—all have had more or less to do with this quarter of the Pacific. The former more especially, have left their traces on many a landmark of this country. The sonorous names from their noble language are yet retained, but now to be spoken by British tongues. Quadra little dreamed perhaps when winding among the rocky pine covered islets which dot our blue waters that a few generations would see the wild scenes of his voyages occupied by the great rivals of his race, and that the posts and settlements planted under the Spanish Crown would so soon exist only in history. Yet so it is. The homes of that haughty race on this coast have become desolate. Their posts are in ruins and look harmlessly over the rancherias of the Indian. The craft of another people now float on the waters once frequented by the Spanish trader. Before the intruding colonists of Britain the Indian too must in the course of nature give way and the very traditions of old European occupants perish save where they have been committed to writing. Is it not time then that we should make some effort to collect and preserve the past history of these colonies. Among the old voyages and reports relating to them many matters of interest and importance may be found. The Spaniards must surely have learnt considerable respecting the topography and resources of this Island, for instance, during their occupation. They had posts here, let us find out who governed them. Those in charge of them no doubt sent descriptions of the country and their actions to their superiors. These descriptions still exist either in print or in manuscript in the archives of Mexico or Spain. Through them we might derive hints that would be of inestimable value to us and aid us in acquiring more knowledge of our country than we now possess.

Besides information respecting the Spanish occupation, we of course want reports and descriptions of the voyages of English and American navigators, who have frequented or sailed along our coasts. We might also obtain perhaps some information through Russian sources. The easiest way, no doubt, to obtain copies of such works as have been committed to print, would be to give instructions to some prominent book collector in London, describing the class of books, manuscripts and information required. They have opportunities of acquiring works not easily procurable by ordinary booksellers. The Canadian Government have thus obtained quite a number of valuable works relating to the history of that country, which were not to be procured in America. The cost of such as we would require would not amount to a great deal, and need not even at this early day stand in the way of our making an effort to obtain them. If we had anything in the shape of a literary society we might open communication with similar bodies in California and Mexico, and through them acquire considerable information that would interest us, which is not otherwise easily accessible.

REPRESENTATION FOR THE OUTER DISTRICTS.

We are glad to observe that the new settlements in the Cowichan country are moving for representation in the House of Assembly. We certainly see no great reason why they are not as well entitled to that boon as several other constituencies of the Island. They have not cast their lot in the wilderness with the expectation of always remaining as free from the forms and advantages of civilized polity as a number of savages. They want the same rights as are vouchsafed to the majority of the remainder of the Island. If they are to be governed by our laws, they desire to have something to say in the making of those laws. It is all the more necessary in their case that they should have some one representing them, as they are so remote from the centre of the population of the colony that their wants are always in danger of being overlooked by the generality of the people. They need, therefore, a special agent with whom they can communicate their requirements and who shall make it his business to become acquainted with his constituency—its capabilities, its drawbacks and the points that are likely to require legislative interference.

And so with regard to the Comax District. The people of that locality, equally with those of Cowichan, should have representation. There is great danger that without something of the sort these settlements will not progress according to the ratio which one would evidently from their great natural capabilities expect. They feel themselves neglected and isolated. Such feelings are too apt to act as a discouragement, and should be counteracted. Give those people representation and you give something they can feel interested in—something which tells them they are civilized men and freemen. Next to local and municipal institutions, parliamentary representation will be for them a school to occupy their thoughts and train them by observation for the time when they shall have matters of greater magnitude and import to regulate. Giving them representation can do no harm, and may be the means of effecting much good: Apart too from the benefits those more immediately interested may derive from it, the public at large could not fail to receive great advantages from an increase of the number of representatives in the House of Assembly.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE.—HOW often do we hear the remar, "I would give worlds if these pimples on my face were gone." Now, friend, you are not called upon to give worlds, but if you will give a dollar those pimples can every one be obliterated; they proceed from a humor in the blood, that Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup will drive out, and your skin will become like alabaster. Surely you cannot doubt this, when the worst cases of Scrofula and Erysipelas are cured by the use of from one to three bottles. We believe in the Syrup, and wish others to join us in the belief. Police Court.

BEFORE A. F. PEMBERTON, ESQ.

WEDNESDAY, 12th August, 1863.

CHARGE OF THEFT.

Solomon Ullman appeared on remand charged with stealing a gold chain and jeweled cross of the value of $50, the property of Mrs. Wm. Jeffray.

Mr. Bishop appeared for the defence.

Mrs. Jeffray deposed to having missed a chain and cross from her premises, on or about the beginning of April last. It was stolen from her house on Government street. She gave a description of the chain to Serjt. Blake, she could identify the chain produced as the one she had lost. Part of the cross was missing. She paid $30 for the chain and $16 for the cross, and valued it at the same amount. She identified the chain on Monday, the accused was wearing it, he said he gave $6 for it to a man who was going to Cariboo. She told him he must know that the chain had not been got honestly or he could not purchase it for $6. To accused—I cannot tell how often you have been to my house, or whether you were there about the time the chain was missed. My husband asked you if you had not purchased it from a woman, you said no, there was no woman concerned in it. To the Court.—The chain has been altered since I lost it, it is shorter, and the cross is wanting.

Cross-examined by Mr. Bishop.—The accused when he came to me was wearing the chain openly. I called him back to examine the chain that I might be sure it was mine. I can positively swear to the chain. He has had goods from the store from my husband, and paid for them honestly. He accompanied me voluntarily to Mr. Marks. I did some time ago suspect a servant girl who left the same day I missed the chain. I cannot undertake to swear that I saw Ullman there in the month of April.

Serj't. Blake, sworn, was present on Monday evening, when Mrs. Jeffray identified the chain found on Ullman. After being cautioned, he said he had purchased it from a man who had gone to Cariboo, but he could not give any description of the man, nor did he know whether he could identify him. After being liberated on bail he came and said he had given an Indian woman $2 for it, and brought the woman to the Court. Witness detained the woman.

Cross-examined by Mr. Bishop.—The woman may have mentioned the $2. She said "no-witka" or something of the sort.

J. B. Smith, sworn—Knew nothing of the chain; had seen it on the prisoner; had asked Ullman where he got the chain, and thought he said he had given a squaw $3 or $4 for it. It was much worn and in a bad condition. Had been in the jeweller's business and seen many chains like it. Sergeant Blake tried to pump him about the chain; he also asked about the cross and said he had bought the chain and wanted the cross also.

Sergeant Blake to the Bench—I said I had got the chain not bought it.

Witness—He may have said got, but I thought he said he had bought it.

Capt. Jeffray deposed that upon being questioned in his shop as to how he came by the chain the accused said "he bought it from no woman but from a man who had gone to Cariboo." He said the chain might belong to Mrs. Jeffray, but it should not go out of his hands without his receiving $6 50 which he had paid for it. Yesterday morning he stated he was very sorry he had made those mistakes about the persons he got the chain from, and that he had bought it from a woman. He made three different statements about the way he got it.

The Indian woman was then called and cautioned in the usual manner. She deposed that she knew the chain produced and had sold it to the accused for $1 5/8. She gave a dress and a blanket for it at a place called Lummy.

The Bench hereupon decided that the woman's evidence was inadmissible.

This closed the case for the prosecution.

Mr. Bishop here called upon his Worship to dismiss the charge as there was not a particle of evidence to identify the chain nor to show that his client had stolen it. He could produce if necessary abundance of evidence to prove his client's good character, and also that many chains were manufactured similar in pattern to the one produced, but he hoped the court would no longer deprive the accused of his liberty.

Mr. Pemberton said he had a duty to perform to the public and would remand the further hearing of the case for three days, in the meantime he would take bail for the appearance of the accused.

NANAIMO ELECTION.—We have got to the end of the general election at last. The contest in Nanaimo is ended, and the member elect and the unsuccessful candidate have both returned to their homes. No election has excited more general interest. None promised to be more favorable to the unsuccessful candidate than it did in the outstart. But fate was against him. Between an injudicious address and the non-arrival of the writ at Nanaimo in time to hold a poll at which the electors who went up in the Enterprise could vote, Mr. Ring has been defeated. He has had a serious fall. He has the satisfaction, however, of knowing that his defeat will become historical as he is the first Attorney General who has been defeated in the colony by a constituency. Mr. Bayley has certainly to thank his lucky star and the generous support of the great majority of the people of Nanaimo for his election. From all we can glean the people—electors and non-electors—with very few exceptions, were highly gratified by his return; whereas, if Mr. Ring had by shrewd management have gained his election, it would never have been with the consent of the resident population of Nanaimo.

OPPOSITION STAGE.—Messrs Plaskett & Glide have made arrangements for running their stage to Saanich daily, instead of every other day. It will leave their stables every morning at 8 o'clock, commencing this (Thursday) morning, proceeding by the west road to north Saanich, and calling at all way side places, where five minutes detention will be allowed, returning by the east road and reaching town about 6 P. M. In order to secure punctuality and despatch, the proprietors will have relays of horses stationed on the road.

MEETING AT COWICHAN.—A meeting of the settlers in and about the neighborhood of Cowichan will, we learn, be held on Friday next, to discuss the expediency of petitioning for a representative of those districts in the House of Assembly. Various other matters of local interest will be likewise taken into consideration.

FROM NANAIMO.—The steamer Fusi Yama arrived yesterday at Esquimalt from Nanaimo with over four hundred tons of coal. Mr. D. B. Ring and Mr. C. A. Bayley were passengers. The new locomotive engine for the colliery had been set in motion, and worked satisfactorily.

COURT OF REVISION.—The adjourned meeting of the Court of Revision under the Real Estate Tax Act, was held over the police court yesterday, when a number of appeals were entertained and reserved.

☞ The Summary Court which was to have been held this morning at 10 o'clock, is postponed until to-morrow at 10 a. m. The adjourned cases will then be taken first.

REMANDED.—Tomo, the Indian interpreter, charged with the murder of his wife, was again brought up in the police court yesterday and remanded for one day.

FOR THE SOUND.—The steamer Eliza Anderson left yesterday morning at 7 o'clock for ports on the Sound.

THE ESCORT.—We thought our contemporary of the Columbian had ceased his meaningless vituperations against the Government for establishing a Gold Escort, but we find we were mistaken. In its last issue we read as follows:—"We wonder what the Press of Victoria will have to say for their pet scheme now? We have, so far, been most fully borne out in our predictions and calculations respecting it. The public must now be fully convinced that it is neither more nor less than a Bank Escort, and what it will earn, apart from the patronage of the Bank, won't pay their whisky bills, which, by the bye, will be no trifle, if what we hear be true. The expression of opinion given at the public meeting held in this city respecting the establishment of the Escort, although treated with impertinent sneers and misrepresentation by the Victoria papers at the time, will be found to have been remarkably appropriate and correct. With the captain and eight horses "used up" by the first trip; with a horse dying here and another sick there; with a man "on the spree" here and another "loafing" there; with the corps, in short, scattered in both Colonies, the institution is all but defunct even now."—Passing by the absence of proof or argument displayed in the foregoing paragraph, and the substitution of trivialities and absurdities in the room of reasoning, we consider that the line of policy adopted by our contemporary, with respect to this greatly needed and necessary institution, cannot be too severely condemned. What end we would ask does that journal seek to accomplish by its dogged and factious opposition? Assuming even that the Government was wrong in granting the prayer of the monster petition, and saddling the Colony with the expense of an escort, now that the movement has been organized and is in fair working order, can any journal in either colony take credit to itself as a conserver of the public interests for endeavoring to hinder its success, and if possible foist the expense already incurred upon the sparse colonial revenue? Yet this is the course pursued by the Columbian; and having exhausted itself and its readers dry on the subject, it strives to raise up an invidious opposition on the part of the "express" companies. In this, however, it signally failed, and was caught in its own trap by announcing exultingly the increase of business experienced by those enterprising and useful societies since the establishment of the Escort. What we say, and what we believe all right thinking and unprejudiced persons must say, is that a gold escort is an absolute necessity in a country like British Columbia, and in spite of the clamorings and railings of its opponents, it will, if properly and faithfully conducted, ultimately prove not only a success, but a boon to both colonies. We would remind our contemporary, in conclusion, that the Gold Escort themselves brought word on their return from their first trip that Messrs. Loring, Diller and party intended to bring down their own dust.

PARTNERSHIP.—We notice that Mr. John Kreimler, late of the firm of St. Ours & Co. of this city, has entered into partnership with Mr. Joseph Spratt of the Albion Iron Works, the business of which useful and flourishing establishment will henceforth be conducted under the style of Spratt and Kreimler. We heartily wish the new firm every success.

BOOTY.—A man named John H. Pritchard was charged yesterday in the Police Court with stealing two pairs of boots from the premises of his employers Messrs Janion, Green & Rhodes. Owing to the illness of an important witness the prisoner was remanded for two days.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer Enterprise arrived yesterday afternoon from New Westminster, with about 30 passengers and $40,000 in gold dust, portion of the treasure brought down the river by the steamer Hope.

British Columbia.

(From the Columbian.)

We have to record the arrival in this city of $335,000 in treasure, from Cariboo, since our last issue, viz: Dietz & Nelson's Express, on Saturday, $25,000; and by a party of miners $310,000. The pile of canvas bags filled with the precious metal presented a most interesting sight as they lay in Mr. Scott's "Pioneer Saloon" yesterday.

Customs Receipts for week ending Saturday, August 8th, 1863: Duties, £892 15 5; harbor dues, £19 16 8; head money, £6 80; tonnage dues, £96 3 3. Total, £1,015 3 4., or $4,924.

The following lines were written upon the death of Capt. Nind's Steed which "shuffled off its mortal coil" on Saturday the 8th inst., at one o'clock P. M. near the New Westminster Cricket ground:

"Poor Old Horse, let Him Die."

Come drop a tear, for this poor horse
Had once a decent name;
But alas! he joined the Escort,
And died of grief and shame.

And now no more he'll follow up,
The cart along the track,
Nor clamber over mountains,
With a "Greeny" on his back.

Then may the "grey backs" ne'er disturb
His bones—where they now rest—
For well they know that while he lived
He always did his best.

The Late Fight off Savannah.

The following incident is related of the late fight between the Weehawken and the Atlanta:

Upon seeing the white flag, Capt. Rodgers immediately dispatched Capt. Harmony of the Weehawken in a small boat to the Atlanta, to receive her commander's sword and take possession of her in the name of the Navy of the United States. As soon as Capt. Harmony arrived on board he received the sword of Capt. Webb, hauled down the new Confederate flag which was hung at her stern, and ran up our own victorious ensign. He then went forward and was ordering his men to cast anchor, when Capt. Webb exclaimed, "For God's sake, Captain, don't cast off the anchors—we have a torpedo underneath this bow." Capt. Harmony turned to him with the utmost nonchalance and said, "I don't care anything about your torpedoes; I can stand them if you can, and if you don't wish to be blown up with me, you had better tell me how to raise the torpedo."

To this Captain Webb readily assented, and calling some of his men, pulleys were attached to a large iron rod which ran out from the prow, and soon there appeared coming out of the water a huge torpedo attached to the end of this rod, which projected thirty feet beyond the bow. Capt. Harmony ordered his men to carefully remove the cap from the torpedo and then fill it with water, in order that the powder might be destroyed. This was done, and the torpedo, holding fifty pounds of powder, was raised aloft on this rod, and was secured at an angle of about forty-five degrees from the deck.

Captain Webb, after surrendering his vessel, summoned the crew on deck and addressed them as follows: "I have surrendered our vessel because circumstances over which I had no control have compelled me to do so. I know that you started on this expedition with high hopes, and you have been disappointed. I most earnestly hope that it had been otherwise, but Providence, for some good reason, has interfered with our plans, and we have failed of success. You all know that if we had not run aground the result would have been different; and now that a regard for your lives has influenced me in this surrender, I would advise you to submit quietly to the fate which has overtaken us. I hope that we all may soon be returned to our homes and meet again in a common brotherhood." At the conclusion of this speech Captain Webb became so affected that he fainted.

The Atlanta was built by subscription contributed by ladies, and was known as "The Ladies' Boat."

THE FORT AT THE MOUTH OF THE COLUMBIA.—We learn that the Fort at Cape Disappointment is to mount twenty guns, consisting of 15-inch Rodman's and 10-inch Columbiads. The construction of the work is under the immediate charge of Capt. Elliott. Col. De Russy (father of Gen. De Russy, who is in charge of the fortifications around Washington), Inspector of Fortifications on this Coast, is also at Astoria, having arrived on the last steamer.—Oregonian.

GLACIERS.

I was not prepared to find well-defined glaciers so far south and in a climate so temperate as this region, where the summers on the river are so hot that the miners find it oppressive to work. But I found four, one after another, at intervals of from five to twenty miles or less, besides several more of small extent, and others seen at a distance, whose dimensions I could not be sure of. They descend from the mountain valleys to the very bank of the river, and there terminate in icy bluffs; a strange spectacle in the midst of the deciduous trees and firs that cover the bottom land. The second glacier, as seen from a mile or two down the river, presents a long icy slope, snow-covered, which as it emerges from the narrow space between the mountains spreads out each way and extends along the river for about a mile; its bluff probably 150 feet high. Even at this distance I could distinguish a line of hills of earth and broken rocks, at the base of the bluff—the moraine, the wreck and debris of mountains that the resistless tide of ice tears away from the granite walls and brings slowly but surely down to lay them at its feet. It seemed but a few yards from the bank of the river to this moraine, and that we could easily step from its top upon the projecting ledges and blocks of ice, and over these clamber to the broad surface of the glacier. But in this, as will be seen, we were deceived. When we reached the bank we found it was composed of great angular masses of granite, and what we had thought level bottom land, a line of hills, thickly wooded—in fact, an ancient moraine, left there long ago by the glacier and now covered with forest. On the other side of this we found a broad belt of swamp land filled with little lakes and overgrown with alders. Passing over this, we clambered up the hills of the inner moraine, made up of loose debris, and without a tree or shrub. They are about forty feet high, and form a continuous line parallel with the outer moraine and with the end of the glacier. From their tops we had a full view of the ice-cliff of the glacier rising before us like a wall, but yet separated from us by a second belt of marshes and ponds, but without any trees. It was a scene of perfect desolation. Great blocks of granite lay over the surface among masses of ice and heaps of sand. Some were perched upon narrow columns of ice, apparently ready to topple over at the slightest touch. Here and there the foundations of ice had given way and been engulfed, or had been uplifted in great masses one against the other, leaving the gaping spaces below filled with mud and water. Over such a fearful path, and uncertain of our security, we gained the more firm ice-slope at the foot of the bluff, and afterwards had to deal with snow and ice alone in the attempt to ascend to the general level above. This, which from below appeared to be so easy by taking advantage of the least broken parts of the slope, proved to be attended with no little difficulty and danger. Fissures, which could not be seen from a few steps distant, became numerous, and some so wide that we could not jump them, and were forced to turn aside. Higher up some of them were filled with hard snow, to which we occasionally trusted, though not without fear of suddenly finding ourselves dropping down between the icy walls. Toward the top the ice was so broken and precipitous—rising before us in walls like the fronts of houses—that we were obliged to turn back, not having anthing with us to assist in climbing. But we had got high enough to have a glorious view of the peaks and pinnacles of ice around us—of the front of the glacier, stretching out each way—of the rock-strewn slope below, and the two lines of moraine, separated by the swamps and lakes. The sun was shining brightly and lighted up the crevasses with the most beautiful aqua-marine tints, which pass into a deep sea-blue in the narrow rifts. A broad crevasse a few yards to the right induced us to go to the edge and look over; but it was an overhanging precipice, and we were made giddy at the depth of the chasm below.

In some of these crevasses the roar and rushing of water below may be heard as it struggles through the caverns and gradually carries away the foundations of the bluff and lets it fall off in great stair-like ledges.

Although never having had the privilege of seeing and exploring glaciers before, they seemed familiar objects at the first view, as well as the various phenomena in detail, so completely did they fulfil my conception of them, formed from verbal descriptions by such observers as Agassiz, Guyot, and the publications of Forbes, Tyndall and others. The great glacier, with its peculiar broken pinnacled surface, recalled at once the beautiful photographs of the Mer de glace, but in general these glaciers seem to me to resemble those of Norway more than those of the Alps.

A BROOK OF HOT WATER.

If I followed my inclination I would complete the description of the glaciers with a discussion of the climate, so that we might, perhaps, understand the condition under which they form, increase and melt away. As the Creator, however, has chosen to permit a group of springs to throw out nearly boiling water on the opposite side of the river, and so present us a novel example of the meeting of extremes, we will just make them a visit. It is only a short distance below the point at which the ice-water from the glacier enters the river that a narrow and deep stream of clear water enters on the other side. We turned our boat up this stream for about one hundred yards, finding the water at a pleasant temperature for bathing. Higher up, it divides, one branch comes clear and cold from the mountain, and the other hot from a group of springs of considerable volume. The vegetation around was remarkably green and luxurious, and there seems to be considerable area of heated ground. By covering a part with a glass house, one could have a tropical climate all the year round, and revel in the beauties of tropical vegetation in full sight of the mountain mass of ice opposite. As we had to wade in the stream to avoid the thickets, it led to the discovery of a spring of iron-water, and of an alternation of hot springs and of cold springs and of cold springs in the bed of the creek, so that one place was too hot, another too cold for us, and altogether, as a Californian would say, the water was "considerably mixed." It is not unlikely that there are hot fountains directly under the ice, sapping its foundations and hastening its decay as it descends from the mountains. This contiguity of hot springs and glaciers is, I fancy, rather a novelty; perhaps, however, it may be seen in Iceland.

CLIMATE.

At this season (the last week in May) the poplars and other deciduous trees were just budding into greenness; in some places the very young leaves had spread out. The nights though cold were not frosty, the thermometer seldom indicating less than forty degrees. It was quite hot in the sun during the day, though in the shade the mercury seldom rose above 65 deg. It is much hotter in midsummer. At Sitka in about the same latitude, or a little north the climate is more equable, and the vegetation more forward. The winter there is not severe, and last winter the ice crop failed. The climate is said to be a continuous autumn. On the Stekin the seasons are strongly marked, or perhaps divided into winter and summer only. The river closes in December, freezes over I am told from its mouth up, and opens in May. Last fall it was open as late as December 17th, and this spring the ice broke up about the 1st of May; in 1862 on the 9th of May.

At the mining camps at and near Shek's Bar, the winter is said to be very severe. Snow commences to fall in October, but chiefly in December, and covers the ground to a depth of from four to fourteen feet and more all winter. Last winter four feet of snow on a level fell in one day. In December the mercury sank below zero, and in February it was frozen in the bulb nine days continuously. There was no thawing or rain during the winter. In ascending the river we found an abundance of snow all along the bank, especially beyond the first mountains. It lay three feet deep in some of the level islands. Cakes of ice were floating down from above, and some of the sloughs or side channels were yet covered. As soon as the warm days of spring or early summer melt the snow, the river begins to rise, and so breaks up the ice. There is then a short season of rising and falling, after which come the continuous floods of the hot months. Very little rain during the summer in the upper part of the river. Of the climate at the Blue Mountains little or nothing is yet known

FISH, GAME, INDIANS, PROVISIONS.

Salmon, halibut, and other good fish abound at the mouth of the river. When the salmon ascends the stream in June and July, the Indians follow and catch them in great numbers. They split them along the back, remove the backbone, cut them in long strips, and dry and smoke them. When well cured they are very fine, and are very convenient in camp. Ducks and geese may be shot on the river, and grouse in the forests of the shores. Bears are plenty in the mountains, and the mountain sheep and goat in the rocky places. Beavers are also abundant. Near our camp one night we found an extensive clearing among the alders and poplars, made by a company of beavers. They had cut off trees three or four inches in diameter in a most workmanlike manner. Otters are taken in great numbers by the Indians of the valley and its tributaries.

Of Indians we found but one encampment. It was too early in the season. They winter either at the mouth, or near the sources, and return to the river during the time of the salmon. A tributary of the Stekin, called the "Scoot," enters from the southeast about fifty miles up, and is a favorite hunting region for a tribe of Indians quite different from the Stekins. Our guide said they do not use canoes, and seldom go upon the water. The furs they catch are sold to the Stekins and Kolushes. There is also a route up this valley by which the Indians reach Fort Simpson in six days.

Provisions at the mining camps of Shek's Bar and above, were sold last winter at the following prices: Flour, $8 a sack; bacon, 40 cents a pound; beans, 40 cents; rice, 30 cents; butter, $1; pressed vegetables, $1. The stock of potatoes was exhausted last fall. Of the ninety men wintering there, nine died from scurvy and exposure.

Latest Speculations about the Confederate Cruisers.

A New York letter to the Bulletin dated June 30th, says:

Our Chamber of Commerce is about memorializing the Government to provide convoys for all vessels bound for foreign ports. It is a grave question whether this would not be the very best service to which the whole fleet of pirate seekers could be put. Certainly the 15 or 20 vessels which for the past year or two have been vexing the ocean in their fruitless search for the marauders, could have effected a vast deal more good as convoys than any they have yet accomplished. And they would be fully as likely, too, to overhaul the pirates when engaged in that service as they would when sent on special errands for that purpose. The ocean, as Bunsby would tell us, is an almost illimitable field, upon whose bosom any vicious craft, who has an interest in keeping out of the way of hostile cruisers, can always do so with impunity, and he would scarcely venture to exchange that impunity for the risk of attacking a fleet of merchantmen who were under the sheltering wings of an efficient enemy.

We shall hear more next week of the arrangements of our merchants as well as of the Navy Department. There is a talk of sending out the Collins steamers Atlantic and Baltic, which are now lying idle in our harbor. It is said that Capt. Nicholson of the navy has volunteered to take command of the last named vessel.

Reports of the whereabouts of some of these pirate craft are so numerous and contradictory as to add no little to the perplexity of the naval authorities. If one is to believe all of these reports, the Alabama, Florida and Virginia are completely ubiquitous. One vessel on a certain day encounters the Alabama off Bahia or Pernambuco; another, on the same day, comes across her in the gulf, while a third, at about the same time, is chased by her at some point hundreds of miles away from either of those places. And as with the Alabama, so with the other two vessels named. And then there are vessels arriving in port every day who report having been chased by piratical vessels with the Confederate flag flying. Reports of this last character may generally be set down as unworthy of the least credit. Semmes and his fellow bucaneers never hoist the pirate colors until they have gotten their victims close under their guns, so as to render escape impossible.

And the very latest story touching the whereabouts of the Alabama placed her at St. Croix, where she was said to be closely blockaded by the Vanderbilt. A still later story concerning an unknown steamer, supposed by some to be her, is to the effect that she was in the offing, engaged in a cannonade with one of our cruisers, the result of which was the sinking of one of the combatants. Which of the two it was that went to the bottom is a matter which the witness of the affair didn't wait to ascertain.

We have another story about the Alabama's affair which may possibly be true. It is to the effect that the agent of the Confederate States at St. Croix recently purchased a large quantity of coal, which that vessel was to call at the island for. The governor, however, had informed the agent that the Alabama would not be allowed to take away the coal, whereupon the agent replied that "Capt. Semmes would come and take it."

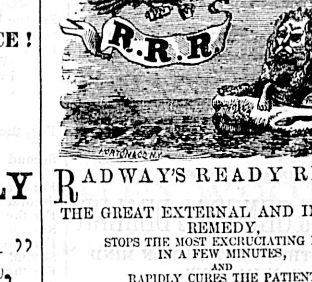
MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.



RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

THE GREAT EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL REMEDY,

STOPS THE MOST EXCRUCIATING PAIN IN A FEW MINUTES, AND RAPIDLY CURES THE PATIENT.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

Proves its superiority to all other Medicines at once.

ITS FIRST INDICATION

Is to relieve the sufferer of PAIN, no matter from what cause it may originate, or where it may be seated.
If in the Head, Face, or Throat;
If in the Back, Spine, or Shoulder;
If in the Arms, Breast, or Side;
If in the Joints, Limbs, or Muscles;
If in the Nerves, Teeth, or Ears;
Or in any other part of the body, its application to the part or parts where the pain exists will afford immediate relief.

IF SEIZED WITH PAIN
In the Stomach, Bowels, or Kidneys;
In the Bladder, Spleen, or Liver;
In the Teeth, Ears, or Throat;
In the Brain or Nervous System;
One teaspoonful of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF to a wineglass of water will, in a few minutes, restore the patient to ease and comfort.
If Lame, Crippled, or Bed-ridden;
If Palsied, Scalded, or Burned;
If Bruised, Wounded, or Cut;
If Strained, Injured, or Disabled;
If Sun Stroke, or seized with Fits;
If Weak in the Spine or Back;

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

should be applied to the part or parts afflicted. It instantly relieves the patient from pain, and quickly heals, soothes, and strengthens the disabled parts. In all cases of Bites of Rabid Dogs, Reptiles, Stings of Poisonous Insects, the application of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF to the wound will prevent inflammation and mortification.

FEVER AND AGUE.

Persons exposed to the Malaria of Ague, or if seized with Chills and Fever, will find a positive Antidote and Cure in Radway's Ready Relief. Let two teaspoonsful of the Ready Relief, in a wineglass of water, be taken on getting out of bed in the morning, and however exposed to malaria you will escape.

WHEN SEIZED WITH
CHOLERA, or Diarrhœa, or Flux;
Dysentery, Cramps, and Spasms;
Bilious Cholic, or Gastritis;
Scarlet, Typhoid, or other Fevers;
Influenza, Coughs, or Colds;
Inflammation of the Stomach or Bowels;

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

SHOULD BE TAKEN INTERNALLY.

One dose will stop the pain; its continued use will, in a few hours, cure the patient.

HOW IT CURES.

The secondary indication of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is to cure the patient of the disease or malady that occasions the pain; this it accomplishes rapidly and radically. So swift is the patient transformed from pain, misery, weakness, and decrepitude, to the delightful enjoyment of health and strength, that patients frequently ascribe its talismanic power to the supernatural influence of enchantment.

RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO, GOUT, NEURALGIA, TOOTH ACHE, CROUP, INFLUENZA, SORE THROAT, QUINZY, DIPTHERIA, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, STIFF JOINTS, ENLARGED TENDONS, HEADACHE, (Sick or Nervous,) ASTHMA, or HARD BREATHING.

It is truly marvellous how quick RADWAY'S READY RELIEF cures the sufferers of these maladies. The poor, crippled, and pain-stricken Rheumatic has not to wait days before a change takes place, but in a few minutes derives ease and comfort.

LONDON TIMES.

Twenty Years of Sleepless Nights.

Wm. Sydney Myers, Esq., of Havana, Cuba, the correspondent of the London Times, suffered with Acute and Chronic Rheumatism for twenty-five years, and for twenty years he had not enjoyed one whole night's calm rest. He applied RADWAY'S READY RELIEF—it immediately gave him ease and secured him the first calm and undisturbed sleep during the twenty years. The continued use of the READY RELIEF cured him.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE.

THERE IS NO OCCASION FOR SICKNESS.

When you first feel pain, then take a teaspoonful of the READY RELIEF, in water; or apply it to the parts where you feel the discomfort.

ALL MALIGNANT DISEASES

first give warning of their presence, and if met promptly before they become securely intrenched within the system, will be readily expelled.

SIGNS OF SICKNESS.

Headache, Pains in the Limbs—in the Stomach, Bowels, and Kidneys—Cold Chills, and Hot Flushes, Coated Tongue, Burning Skin, Nausea, Shivering, Dullness, Loss of Appetite, Restlessness, Giddiness, &c., &c., are premonitory symptoms of Malignant Diseases. One dose of the READY RELIEF is sufficient to break up and expel diseased action, and restore the patient to health.

IN THE ARMY.

Dysentery, Bilious Cholic, Flux, Yellow, Typhoid and Malarius Fever, Rheumatism, Small Pox, Diptheria, Letters from Medical Directors, Surgeons, and Military Officers endorse the importance of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF over all other medicinal remedies.

EIGHTH MAINE.

Eighth Maine regiment, Serg't C. P. Lord, writes that Radway's Ready Relief saved the regiment from death while quartered at Tybee Island, S. C., when working in the swamps, erecting fortifications. Every man seized with Typhoid and other Fevers, Fever and Ague, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, was cured by the use of the Ready Relief.

CAUTION.

In all cases ask for Radway's Ready Relief. Take no other. See that the signature of Radway & Co. is on the outside label of each bottle. Every agent is supplied with a new and fresh stock. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by Druggists, Merchants and country storekeepers.

One grain of the extract of the medicinal properties of Radway's Pills, possess a greater curative power over disease than a thousand of the crude and inert materials that enter into all other pills in use. These Pills are compounded of the active medicinal properties of the Roots, Herbs, Plants, Flowers, Gums, &c. of which they are composed. AS ALTERATIVES,

They exercise a more powerful influence over the liver and its secretions than calomel, mercury, blue pill, hence their importance in cases of Liver Complaints and Spleen Difficulties, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Bilious attacks, Headache, &c. In the treatment of Fevers, either Bilious, Yellow, Typhoid, and other reducing Fevers, they are superior to quinine. PILES, STRAINING AND TENESMUS,

Are the results of Inflammation or irritation of the mucous membrane of the bowels, induced by drastic pills—these imperfect pills, instead of being dissolved by the chile, are carried to the lower bowels, and induce a peristaltic movement or evacuation by their irritation—hence the straining, cramps, wrenching pains, piles and tenesmus, and the frequent false calls to the water closet, that patients undergo who take these imperfect pills.

If you would avoid these annoyances, whenever a purgative medicine is required, take a dose of

NO FICTION, BUT TRUTH.

It is c stomary to speak of many remedies of he day in a light and frivolous manner, and this may answer where the case to be cured is of a trifling character, and the remedy presented simple. But when we are called to prescribe for diseases endured only with excruciating pain, whose termination is often fatal, we leave jesting, and proceed with earnestness to utter facts that will perhaps rescue a fellow being from a bed of sickness or the grave. It is thus that we would introduce to our readers SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP, and state that for the cure of humors there is nothing in the world can equal this popular and extensively used medicine. MEDICAL.

THE WORLD'S FRIEND!

Holloway's Ointment.

A Cure for Piles and Fistulas.

Inflammation of sensitive parts, piles, fistulas, and such like painful diseases may be presently relieved and ultimately cured, by the proper and diligent us of this cooling and healing Ointment, whose actio should, in such cases, be assisted by judicious dose of Pills: ere many days have elapsed the anxious pa tient will experience a wonderful degree of ease from this treatment. They are equally suitable to both sexes, and all ages.

Coughs, Colds, and Asthma.

These complaints of the chest come on with alarm ing frequency. The Ointment should assiduously be rubbed at least twice a day on the chest and between the shoulders, when the violence of all symptoms wil gradually give way, the breathing become longer, and the oppression less. No medicines are more eff ient in chest complaints, none can be used with equal safety and certainty. Both Pills and Ointment are accompanied by very clear and simple directions for using them.

A Man who refused to have his Leg off.

"From the Kilrush Advertiser, June 2nd, 1860.

BENJAMIN COX, Esquire, Magistrate, said in the Board Room at Kilrush, that he knew a man who had been in the Infirmary and was actually turned out as incurable, on his way home to Kilrush, he purchased at Ennis, Holloway's Pills and Ointment, for, as he said, it could not be worse with him. This man, said Mr. Cox, became by their use as sound and as healthy as any man in the room. These celebrated Pills and Ointment will cure y wound, sore, or ulcer, however long standing, properly used according to the printed directions.

Gout and Rheumatism.

The essence of these diseases lie in the blood, which has, floating through each vessel, the pain-giving poison, which irritates and inflames every tissue it comes in contact with, and produces the hot, swollen, elastic enlargement about the joints so characteristic of gouty diseases. The philosophy of cure consists in overcoming this depravity in the blood, which is rapidly purified by the use of the Pills The Ointment, when rubbed upon the skin, penetrates system through the pores, acts in unison with Pills, and soon effects a cure.

Dropsy. Swollen Legs or Ankles.

The various kinds of dropsies, whether windy or watery, arise from some obstruction to the free circulation though the blood vessels or lymphatics, or depend on the inflamed state of some secreting surface. Holloway's remedies, of which the efficacy cannot be exaggerated, act directly upon the blood, the absorbents and secretions, with a power that no dropsy, however inveterate, can long resist. They regulate the proper flow of blood to every organ, and purify it likewise.—they filter out everything that is morbid or injurious.—they thoroughly regenerate every function, yet potent as they are for good, they are powerless for evil. They do not contain mercury or any noxious substances. They act safely and certainly.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Old Ulcers

This invaluable Ointment was never known to fail in the cure of any wound, any sore, or any ulcer,—as can be proved by innumerable testimonials from persons who had been discharged from Hospitals as incurable, and yet by perseverance they have been made as sound as they were the day they were born, by this incomparable Ointment. For pimples, blotches, scald heads, and scorbutic humours, it is equally efficacious.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Chiego-foot	Fistulas	Sore-throats
Bad Breasts	Chilblains	Gout	Skin-diseases
Burns	Chapped Hands	Glandular	Scurvy
Bunions	Corns (Soft)	Swellings	Sore-heads
Bite of Mosquitoes and Sand-Flies	Cancers	Lumbago	Tumours
Coco-bay	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Piles	Ulcers
Scalds	Elephantiasis	Rheumatism	Wounds
			Yaws
			Sore Nipple

Chlorodyne.

CHOLERA, DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, CRAMP, AGUE, FEVER, RHEUMATISM, CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, COUGH, &c.

ALL PAIN, VOMITING AND DISTRES ceases in a few minutes after taking a dose o that wonderful SEDATIVE ANODYNE and ANTISPASMODIC remedy discovered by Dr J Collis Browne M.R.C S.L., (ex-Army Med. Staff,) the recipe of which was confided solely to J. T. Davenport, 33 Great Russell street, Bloomsbury-square, London (Pharmaceutical Chemist). The medical testimony of civil, hospital, military and naval practitioners pronounces it INVALUABLE. It relieves pain of any kind, soothes the restlessness of fever, and imparts the most refreshing sleep, without producing or eaving any of the unpleasant effects of opium.

As a proof of its efficacy, a few extracts from numerous Testimonials by Physicians and Surgeons are given:

From W. Vesalius Pettigrew, M D., Hon. F.R.C.S. England, formerly Lecturer upon Anatomy and Physiology at St. George's School of Medicine: "I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Diarrhœa and other diseases, and am most perfectly satisfied with the results"

Dr. Gibbon, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta: "Two doses completely cured me of Diarrhœa."

From C. V Ridout, Esq., Surgeon, Egham: "As an astringent in severe Diarrhœa and an antispasmodic in Colic and Cramps in the Abdomen, the relief is instantaneous."

Extracts from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.

1st Stage of Premonitory—In this stage the remedy acts as a charm, one dose generally sufficient.

2nd Stage, or that of Vomiting and Purging—In this stage the remedy possesses great power, more than any other we are acquainted with, two or three doses being sufficient.

3rd Stage, or Collapse—In all cases restoring the pulse. So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of using it in all cases.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay: "Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery." To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other medicines had failed."

CAUTION.—In consequence of the extraordinary efficacy of this remedy, several unprincipled parties have been induced to vend imitations. Never be tempted to buy Chlorodyne, except in sealed bottles, having the Government stamp, with the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" engraved thereon. A sheet full of medical testimonials accompanies each bottle. Sole manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT 33 Great Russell street, Bloomsbury, London. Sold in bottles, 2s 9d and 4s 6d. ju24wly
